

Vaudeville

PALACE—Five headline acts share honors on this week's bill—Sophie Tucker, Larry Fox, Carl Randall, Wellington Cross and Harry Watson Jr., Bob Nelson, Miller and Capman, Reynolds and Donegan, Helen and Maudie Reynolds also appear.

At Proctor's 58th Street

Marie Gaspar

At the Riverside

Fritzi Scheff

In Picture Theaters

APOLLO—Mary Pickford's "Little Lord Fauntleroy" enters its third week. CAPITOL—"The Invisible Power," a Goldwyn production, in which House Peters is featured, is the principal film attraction.

Brooklyn Theaters

MAJESTIC—"In the Night Watch," Robert Warwick featured, is the current attraction. MONTAUK—"Little Old New York" talks here this week.

B.F. KEITH'S NEW YORK THEATRES PALACE. All Star Program. Overture, Pathe News, Reynolds, Donegan & Co., Fred Miller & Capman, George Bobbe & Nelson, William & Gordon Dooley, Wellington Cross, Lightner Girls & Newton Alexander, Sophie Tucker, Harry Fox, Harry Watson, Jr.

EMPIRE OTIS SKINNER BLOOD AND SAND. THE ONLY THING ENG. LAND AND IRELAND. HENRY MILLER'S THEATRE. DULCY. LYNN FONTANNE. THE MERRY WIDOW. HUDSON THE MAN IN THE MAKING.

WINTER GARDEN—Inauguration of Shubert vaudeville. Hal Forde and Gitz Rice head the bill, which includes the Aven Comedy Four, Kajiyama, Du-Callon, Olympia Desvall and Harper and Blanks.

WILL YOUR DAUGHTER BE ONE OF THE 65000? Last year more than 65,000 girls left or disappeared from home—dropped through the bottom of the world. Why do they go? Where do they go? See the vivid explanation in the startling drama of today—"WHY GIRLS LEAVE HOME"

MARK STRAND CHARLIE CHAPLIN "The IDLE CLASS" A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION AND THE FOLLOWING EXTRAORDINARY BILL Strand Symphony Orchestra

Outlying Houses SHUBERT-RIVIERA—"Enter Madame," with Gilda Varese and Henry Stephenson, is the attraction. BRONX OPERA HOUSE—"Ladies' Night" plays here this week.

THE HIGHWAY OF HAPPINESS You can reach it very quickly from where you are by L. Subway, Rolls-Royce or Ford. When you come to the sign that reads MARY PICKFORD IN HER SPECIAL FILM PRODUCTION "LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY"

"A THRILLING, STIRRING PICTURE"—NEW YORK TIMES DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS presents The THREE MUSKETEERS Based on ALEXANDER DUMAS' GREAT NOVEL LYRIC THEATRE WEST 42nd ST.

SAM H. HARRIS ATTRACTIONS. GORT THEATRE "ONLY 38" DELIGHTFUL WORTH A DOZEN THRILLERS. MUSIC BOX REVUE. THE HERO. SIX CYLINDER LOVE. MARIE DORO

ALICE FRISCA. MONTAUK. LITTLE OLD NEW YORK. GENEVIEVE TOBIN. MR. PIM PASSES BY. MAJESTIC. SHUBERT-CRESCENT SHUBERT VAUDEVILLE. EMILY ANN WELLMANN and RICHARD GORDON